

Military Family Day

Where: Dakota County Technical College

Date: Tuesday, November 10

Time: 9 am – 1 pm

Free Community Event

Dakota County Technical College will be hosting a Military Family Day on November 10, from 9 am until 1 pm. Service providers from State and County Agencies will be available in the commons. The Armed Forces Recruiters will also be available. From noon until 1:00 pm, an Army Black Hawk Helicopter is scheduled to land at DCTC's AMES Soccer Complex where you will be able to take a look inside and talk with the pilots.

Key Speakers:

9:30 am- LTC Vicky Kline, USAR will be speaking on her experiences as an Army Nurse during the Viet Nam era. She has also served on staff at the White House caring for President Regan after his attempted assassination. LTC Kline went on to marry Colonel John Kline, USMC in 1990. Following her retirement in 1992, LTC Kline continued working as a nurse in civilian life. She has been heavily involved in the political process for years and continues to work tirelessly for her husband's reelection.

11:00 am – CPT Brandi Degier, a current Army National Guard soldier will be speaking on, Women in Combat: Rewards and Challenges – One Woman's Experience. CPT Degier is an Operation Iraqi Freedom Veteran who currently serves veterans as an Outreach Provider.
